Reflecting The Divine Image: Christian Ethics In Wesleyan Perspective

Synopsis

H. Ray Dunning uses the lens of Wesleyan thought to examine issues of ethical methodology and then shows how an ethic based on the "imago Dei" shapes our relation to God, to one another, and to the earth.

Customer Reviews

Fantastic book that really explains ethics and how they relate to the image of God from a Wesleyan-Arminian perspective.

A superb condensation of good Wesleyan theology. A must read for Wesleyans and those who want to understand it.

Received my order in plenty of time for my class. I need the book for a class I was taking.
