Calendar Mysteries #11: November Night (A Stepping Stone Book(TM))

Synopsis

It's a mystery every month from A to Z Mysteries author Ron Roy! It's November, and the younger siblings of the A to Z Mysteries detectives have a new mystery to solve. The twins' new neighbors are up to something! It's Thanksgiving, and a mysterious couple has moved in next door. Bradley, Brian, Nate, and Lucy must work out the clues: The neighbors have built a tall wooden fence. They've bought some strange parts for making . . . something. They've even put up a suspicious tent in their backyard, with a big, scary dog to guard it. What could they possibly be hiding?

Mrs. Bowden's 3rd grade reading group: Bradley, Brian, Lucy and Nate get a new neighbor and that's where the mystery begins. They are trying to figure out what the new neighbors are building in their backyard. The new neighbors have a huge dog that keeps them away from the tarp and one step closer from finding out what they are up to. They really want to know what is going on. We liked this book because it was a mystery the kids have to work together to solve. We also had some text to self connections in the story. The end was a great surprise.

My husband and I read these stories to my daughter at bedtime. The kids solve mysteries and use critical thinking skills to solve problems.

purchased for library, kids love it.

My class loves this series.

Good series

Bradley and Brian used to go next door and play with the other neighborhood kids in a huge hollow tree trunk. But the house was sold, and the new neighbors built a tall wooden fence around the whole yard to keep their big dog in. The kids were all sad that they couldn't play in the tree any more, but Bradley and Brian were even more worried than the others. They had padded the bottom of the hole in the tree trunk with hay, and both boys had left something there. Bradley had left his flashlight inside the tree, and Brian had hidden his savings bank under the hay! How can they ever get their things back? Exciting story for kids aged 7-9.

Great book...brand new and on delivered on time.

I liked it a little. The story line was kind of odd and it ended too quickly unlike the others in the series.
