Customer Reviews

Biscuit stories are engaging and brief. Perfect for toddlers and for early readers. Families with dogs will especially appreciate this and all the Biscuit Books. . Alyssa Satin Capucilli 's words and illustrations explore the fun and interpersonal dynamics of having a pet with sensitivity to a puppy's world view. She writes with gentility and sensitivity. These books are especially right for youngsters with pets. And Biscuit is so cute!

This book was purchased for my 14 month old granddaughter. She loves animals, especially puppies and kitties, so this was the perfect Valentine's book for her. The story is simple enough to hold her attention and she has brought it along to my house several times for me to read to her. She enjoys touching the "feelie" blanket and other touchable items present within the pictures. The illustrations are colorful, yet soft and pleasant. She has another Biscuit board book which she loves as well. This book is a nice, simple beginning for a young child to understand the concept of love.

If you have a very young child that is just learning to appreciate books, this would be a completely perfect choice. The book is very durable and can handle a lot of abuse. The pages are made well and there are touch and feel spots for kids to explore new textures. The story is simple and cute and the illustrations are wonderful. This would make a beautiful gift for a child.

My 14 month old granddaughter loves this book! She listens to the book and touches the different textures. She never gets tired of it.

My son loves all of these books, the edges on all of them are worn from reading them over and over again. He really enjoys the touch and feel.

My 1 1/2 year old just loves all the Biscuit touch and feel books. They are very durable and stand up to quite a bit of "abuse"

My infant loves Biscuit books. He really enjoys touching the different textures and listening to the story!

Charming and sweet, beautifully illustrated. The Pet and Play feature is fun for even the youngest child!
